Junior Club Closes Current Club Year

With the newly-installed officers presiding, the Torrance Junior Woman's Club held its last meeting of the current club year on June 11.

Highlighting the event, the club presented one more check, to a youth of the area, and then accepted two outstanding awards for club achievements.

The $100 check, proceeds from the club's Spool and Bobbin Show, was given to Mary Elizabeth Gordon, 17, who was graduated from the Kurt Sherry High School in February with a 3.36 grade point. Miss Gordon is a part-time student at El Camino and will enter a full time schedule in the fall. She is also employed part-time as a clerk typist in Gardena. Howard Shoen, principal at Kurt Sherry and Calvin Eubanks, vice principal, were also guests at the meeting.

The Junior Club then received two awards, one for its work with the March of Dimes and the other for its Conservation Education for Youth.

Ernie Ellis, community chairman for the March of Dimes made that presentation and Rex Griggs, from the Division of Forestry at Riverside was present to pay tribute for the club's role in conservation education.

Mr., Mrs. S. G. Wilkins Honeymoon in Japan

Miss Tamaki M. Torre, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rosario C. Torre of Torrance, became the bride of Steven G. Wilkins in a nuptial ceremony at the Riviera Methodist Church on June 7. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. George C. Wilkins of Torrance.

The Rev. R. H. Holborn officiated at the marriage for which the bride wore a gown of Thai silk and a floor length silk illusion veil. She carried on arm bouquet of white roses.

Miss Marilyn Baird attended the bride as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Caroline Humble, Jeanne Graciffa, Mary Jo Mosher and Janet Detweiler. Carol Brawley was the flower girl.

Best man was James Fillpot. Ushers were Louis Torre, George Fukushima, Paul Nakamura and Kazuo Sayama. The ring bearer was Jimmy Houston.

The newlyweds left for a honeymoon in Tokyo, Japan, and will live in Torrance upon their return.

Joseph Torre, Frank A. Torre, and Frank A. Torre, Jr., the grandfather, uncle and nephew of the bride, came from Albany, N.Y., to attend the wedding.

Mrs. Wilkins was graduated from West High School in June, 1965 and attended El Camino College. She is a stewardess for World Airways.

Mr. Wilkins was graduated from West Torrance High School and attended California State College at Long Beach for three years. He presently has a commercial pilot's license and is with the FAA at the Torrance Airport.
